

To the Nobility, Gentry, and the Curious for inspecting most Extraordinary Human Beings, of the wild Species born.

Just Arrived from Abroad,

And to be Seen at Mr. Becket's, Trunk Maker, No. 31; HAY-MARKET,

From Ten o'Clock in the Morning, till Nine in the Evening,

Three Wonderful Phœnomena,

Wild Born, of the Human Species :

THESE are Two Females and a Male, of a very SMALL STATURE, being little less or more than Four Feet High;

Each with a Monstrous C R A W under the Throat, containing within, some Three, some Four, some Five BALLS or GLANDS, more or less big than an Egg each of them, and which play upwards and downwards, and all ways in their Craws, according as incited and forced, either by their Speaking, or Laughing. These Three Most wonderful wild born Human Beings, whose Country, Language, and Native Customs are yet unknown to all Mankind, it is supposed started in some Canoes from their Native Place (believed to be some still unknown remote Land of South America and being after Wrecked, were picked up by a Spanish Vessel, which in a violent Storm, was also lost off Trieste, in Italy, when these Three People, and another of the same kind, since Dead, were providentially saved from perishing; though, it is imagined, there were more on board of their Species.—At that period they were of a dark Olive Complexion, but which has astonishingly, by degrees, changed to the colour of that of Europeans.

These Three truly-surprising Beings, have attracted to themselves the most minute Attention, and great Admiration of all the Princes, celebrated Ana-tomists, and Naturalists, to whom they have been presented in Europe, for their Rare, and yet Unknown Species; and not less indeed, for their most apparent and surprising Happiness, and Content among themselves; most endearing Tractableness and respectful demeanour towards all Strangers, as well for their unparallel'd and natural, chearful, lively, and merry Disposition, Singing and Dancing (in their most extraordinary Way,) at the will and pleasure of the Company.

Admittance, Two Shillings Each:—Children Half price.
